Dress Code Policy

Dear Parents and Guardians,

All students must come to school dressed in accordance with the school dress code every day. This helps Canton College Prep maintain a sense of community and personal responsibility. Students are expected to attend school in full uniform as indicated in the uniform policy in the following section. Failure to comply with the school's uniform policy will result in disciplinary actions.

What does this look like: Monday-Thursday

Boys:

Button up shirts or Polo shirts with collars, these shirts can be in three (3) Colors: Navy Blue, Light Blue, and White

Khaki, Black, or navy-blue pants* (slacks)

Students must wear closed-toed shoes or sneakers that tie, Velcro, or always buckle. (Tennis Shoes, Dress Shoes, or Boots)

Crocks, sandals, slides, flip flops, and shoes without backs are not allowed.

Girls:

Khaki, Black, or navy-blue pants* (slacks), skirts, shorts, or jumpers, must be longer than the fingertips when arms hang at the student's side. No leggings, jeggings, or any other denim style bottoms are permitted.

Crocks, sandals, flip flops, slides, and shoes without backs are not allowed.

Every Friday (which is free) is our dress down day. Students are allowed to wear regular clothing if they choose!

-Clothing that is vulgar, depicts discriminatory, or obscene words or images, or that promotes weapons, drugs, alcohol, tobacco, drug paraphernalia, violence or gang symbols is prohibited.

-No tank tops, rip/distress jeans (unless leggings/ tights are under them)

-Stomachs must be covered.

-Shorts and skirts must go to your scholar's knee caps

-No head wear or hats are permitted

Sincerely,
Mr. Corner
Principal
